MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Potential for Implementation at CIA of Stilwell Report Recommendations

Thank you for your comprehensive memorandum on the applicability of the Stilwell report recommendations to CIA. I think it was a useful thing to do, you and your people did a good job on it, and you have nicely defined where we are and what else we may need to do.

William J. Casey

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Stilwell Report on Pentagon Security

25X1

1. I'd like to be assured that CIA has reviewed General Stilwell's report on tightening up security at the Pentagon to see how any of his recommendations might be needed or applicable at CIA. I was attracted by a recommendation on reporting of all foreign travel, emphasis on security reporting--hotline, and the one-time command inspection.

2. I attach some notes I took when Stilwell reported on this.

William J. Casey

Attachment a/s

Stilwell

- Reporting of all foreign travel
- Emphasis on security reporting - hotline - observed isolation
- Random exit and entry inspection
- One-time command inspection
- Coordination of research - behavioral science area
- Improve investigation and adjudication procedure
- Technical and physical security devices
- Improved training and certification of security personnel
- Cut down clearances
- Restrict need for continuing access
- More use of one-time access
- Single scope investigative criteria for TS & SCI
- Work with OAM to upgrade classification, grade incentives for security personnel
- Better access to Federal data bank - draft, student loans, tax deficiencies
- Require Congressional action
  - FOIA exemption for DoD
  - Monetary awards for info
  - Improve security standards on Hill - Bernie McMahon
  - Billet system for TS comparable to SCI -  25X1
